Classic in proportion, this picturesque home draws on many traditions, with intricate brick detailing, steeply pitched gables and arched windows. Recessed double doors and a handsome clerestory add interest to the refined exterior presence. The two story foyer opens to the great room, which features a centered fireplace framed by a tall window and lovely French doors. In the formal dining room, a triple window allows a generous view of the back yard. A secluded first floor master suite with a vaulted ceiling is complemented by three second floor bedrooms and a loft with an open rail view to the foyer.
